

HALF MEASURES, NO SOLUTIONS

Official distribution of persons registered with the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East (UNRWA), distribution, founding dates and population of camps, and number and status of Israeli and Jordanian Palestinians, 2018–2020

9,136,000
total inhabitants

Israel 1,890,000

Israeli nationals of Palestinian Arab origin, of whom 278,000 in East Jerusalem and Golan Heights, status as permanent residents

Jordan 10,458,000
total inhabitants

over 2,000,000

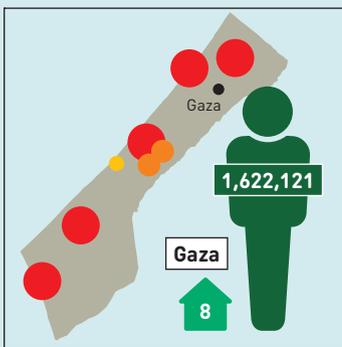

Jordanian nationals of Palestinian Arab origin. Another 1.835 million are stateless and are under UNRWA care, along with other registered persons*

○ camps 1948
△ camps 1967

■ 600–25,000
■ 25,000–50,000
■ 50,000–110,000

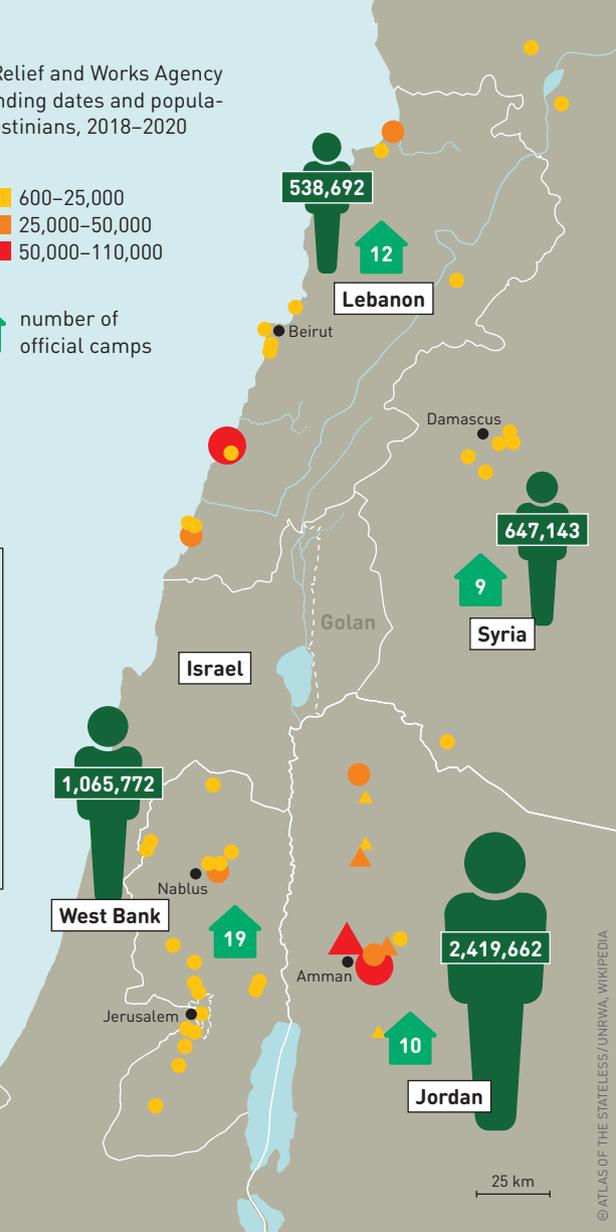

■ registered persons*

▲ number of official camps

* registered refugees and other registered persons (entitled to benefits, including people who are married, children, adoptees, very poor people in Gaza and Jerusalem, people living near the border)  annexed by Israel. Right to Israeli citizenship overwhelmingly rejected because accepting it would imply acceptance of the annexation

25 km